SOCIO ECONOMIC EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERVICE-INDIA

Who are we?

SEEDS INDIA is an ecumenical charitable service society, established in 1990 for the well being of the underprivileged, marginalized, neglected and the destitute who found it very hard to meet both ends of life. We are committed to address economic vulnerability in highly enslaved communities. SEEDS is an acronym for Socio Economic Educational Development Service.

Our Vision

"Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute. Speak up and judge fairly; defend the rights of the poor and needy".

(Proverbs 31:8-9, NIV)

Our Founder

Dr. Thomas Mathew, a native of Punnakkadu, a village adjacent to the UN heritage village Aranmula, Pathanamthitta, Kerala is the founder and director of SEEDS INDIA. He leads the organization from the forefront and engages in grassroots, national and international level in order to nurture and grow social endeavor to benefit enslaved and vulnerable communities.

Dr. Mathew has a long history of working and holding positions in the international social and peace arena. He is a seasoned social and inter-faith activist. He had served as the International President of the International Association for Religious Freedom (U.K), the Director of the Ferris University (Yokohama, Japan) India Education Centre, National Board Member of YMCA's of India along with other noteworthy achievements.

What we do?

As the acronym SEEDS denotes SEEDS INDIA is working for three major areas of human life, viz., social, economical and educational development, especially of underprivileged. We believe that focusing on these areas a holistic development and well being can be achieved. Various projects are undertaken with different output periodicity for the benefits of the destitute and poor.

Major projects of SEEDS INDIA are:

Daily Free Food Supply

SEEDS INDIA supplies one time free meal every day at District Public Hospital, Kozhencherry at a distance of 4 km from SEEDS INDIA. SEEDS started this noble gesture on 1 January 2000 to support underprivileged patients and bystanders who finds difficulties to earn their daily bread and no provision for supper. Since its inception everyday without fail 150 to 200 poor patients and their bystanders are served free food, cooked and transported from SEEDS INDIA. Poor patients and their bystanders queuing up every day in front of hospital for food is really a heart breaking scene.
